

Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004

Overview of the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (MRCA)

Overview

This Factsheet provides an overview of the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (MRCA), including a list of the basic rights and entitlements to compensation and rehabilitation for current and former members of the Australian Defence Force (ADF), as well as Cadets, Cadet Officers and Instructors who are injured in the course of their duties on or after 1 July 2004.

The MRCA also provides compensation to the dependants of those members and former members who die or are severely injured as a result of their service on or after 1 July 2004.

Who is covered by the MRCA?

The MRCA provides rehabilitation and compensation coverage for the following 'members' of the ADF on or after 1 July 2004:

- all members of the permanent Australian Defence Force;
- all members of the Reserve Force;
- Cadets and Officers and Instructors of Cadets; and
- other people declared in writing by the Minister for Defence to be members of the ADF.

ADF members and former members who suffer from injuries or medical conditions arising from service prior to 1 July 2004 are generally not covered by the MRCA for those injuries or medical conditions. However, they will continue to be covered under the provisions of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 (SRCA) and/or the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (VEA). The only exceptions to this are:

- where an injury, disease or illness is suffered which is due to, or aggravated by service both before 1 July 2004 and on or after that date. In such an event, the injury, disease or illness (as well as the aggravation) are covered entirely under the provisions of the MRCA
- in cases involving Permanent Impairment compensation under the MRCA where an injury, disease or illness has also been accepted under the VEA or the SRCA. In such cases, the combined conditions will be assessed under the MRCA with the new payment being the difference between the benefit assessed under the MRCA and the previously paid VEA and/or SRCA entitlement; or
- where a medical condition has been accepted under the VEA and where that condition is aggravated by ADF service on or after 1 July 2004. In those circumstances, the claimant will have the choice of applying for an increase in his or her disability pension under the VEA or making a claim under the MRCA for the effects of the aggravation.

Who is not covered under the MRCA?

You are not covered under the MRCA if all of your ADF service occurred prior to 1 July 2004. Instead, you will continue to be covered under the SRCA and/or VEA depending on the type and period of your service with the ADF.

What benefits might be payable under the MRCA?

Where liability for injury or disease has been accepted under the MRCA, the following benefits may be payable:

- vocational and other rehabilitation services;
- choice of periodic payments or lump sum compensation or a combination of both for permanent impairment (non-economic loss);
- incapacity benefits which are periodic payments of compensation for economic loss due to incapacity for service or work;
- choice of a Special Rate Disability Pension (SRDP) (safety net) payment for life or incapacity payments up to age 65 (conditions apply);
- vehicle modifications or assistance with the cost of purchasing a vehicle under the Motor Vehicle Scheme (conditions apply);
- compensation for household services;
- compensation for attendant (personal) care services;
- MRCA supplement (replacing previous small allowances – depending on eligibility);
- compensation for dependants in the event of a member's death (conditions apply);
- funeral benefits;
- bereavement payments;
- assistance with the cost of financial advice obtained in relation to certain permanent impairment, SRDP and death benefit choices;
- DVA White or Gold Cards in certain cases or otherwise payment of reasonable treatment costs related to accepted medical conditions for those who are not eligible for a White or Gold card; and
- journey and accommodation costs associated with medical appointments for treatment and with rehabilitation assessments and programs.

For further information regarding the above benefits and payments, please refer to the appropriate Factsheet listed below.
